This image shows a blank sheet of white paper designed for handwriting practice. It features ten horizontal grey lines spaced evenly down the page. A single vertical dashed grey line runs from the top to the bottom of the page, centered between the horizontal lines, creating two equal-width columns for letter formation.

This image shows a full page of handwriting practice paper. It features ten sets of horizontal lines, each consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. These lines are evenly spaced vertically across the entire page, providing a guide for letter height and placement. The paper is otherwise blank, with no text or other markings.
